BUYING GUIDE

93 Longoria 2009 Bien Nacido Vineyard Pinot Noir (Santa Maria Valley); $45. Obviously from a superior terroir, this Pinot shows gorgeously ripe berry fruit and spices, brisk acidity, firm tannins and a rich coating of oak. But the parts haven't come together. It's like a team that needs practice. Should peak sometime in 2012, and hold for a couple years. Cellar Selection. —S.H.
